Lt. General Joseph F. Carroll all
Director, Defense Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Joe:

This is a brief note to express my very sincere appreciation for the briefing, arranged by [redacted] -

[redacted], which we received the other day from General

[redacted]
and many other members of DIA. It was an extremely interesting briefing which seemed to me to reflect the very substantial progress which has been made in the organization and functioning of the Defense Intelligence Community. Ambassador Nolting and Mr. [redacted] were present, as well as [redacted] and other members of my staff. We all learned a great deal and profited from the occasion.

I should appreciate it if you would convey our thanks to the officers who participated in the briefing, as well as my apologies for the imposition which it made upon their time.

Faithfully yours,

JAB:ag (15/2/64)

John A. Bross
